Art Lecture

Tuesday 21st February, 8pm

Dali - A Renaissance artist in the 20th century by Julia Musgrave

Like the Renaissance artists he admired, Salvador Dali did not restrict his creative output to painting but was also a writer, poet engraver, sculptor, architect, theatre designer and jewellery designer.

As well as designing jewellery, Dali selected the materials to be used, focusing not just on the colours or the value of the material, but also on their symbolic meanings. This lecture explores the work of Dali the designer and science enthusiast.

Booking not required.

Art Group Members – free

Non-Art Group Club Members – £5

Non-Member Guests – £10

Pay on the door on the night.

Reading Room Exhibition

Visit our February Reading Room Exhibition of paintings by Art Group Treasurer Jonathan Collard.

'I was asked to be Treasurer of the Art Group over ten years ago. At that stage I knew nothing about painting but dabbled a little with photography.

Having chatted with other Members of the Art Group I decided to enrol for drawing classes including charcoal and pastels before moving on to watercolour and acrylics. I have now been doing both watercolour and acrylics classes for several years which I am still enjoying enormously.

Apart from the art my classmates are sociable and fun and going to art classes each week is a real pleasure.'
