

Art Palette – 23rd March

Opening drinks for the Classwork Exhibition followed by a brief Art Group AGM

You are all invited to the opening of the Classwork Exhibition in the Reading Room, with drinks served at 6pm on Monday 27th March.

Come and see this year's truly outstanding work created by students from the Roehampton Club art classes. We hope you'll be impressed by the creative talents of our students – at all levels – from relative beginner to the more experienced.

The exhibition will then be on display 27th March – 28th April.

The Art Group AGM will follow at 6.30pm to celebrate another year of understanding, enjoying and practicing art!

Come along to meet your fellow art group aficionados and the committee members, ask questions or just to say thanks. I will keep it brief!

Summer 2023 Art Classes

Summer Term Art Classes will run for 5 weeks in the Art Studio starting Monday 17th April.

Booking for Art Group Members opens on Saturday 25th March and for the whole Club on Saturday 1st April.

We're running our full range of classes – see full details below. If you're new to art or want to refresh your skills, the 5-week term is a great opportunity to try out our successful Beginners and Improvers Drawing and Painting class with Kathy Barker.

Art Lecture in the Club at 8pm on 18th April

Beckman, Grosz and Dix – German Degenerates, lecture by Frank Woodgate.

Reviled by the Nazis and condemned in the Entartete Kunst (Degenerate Art) exhibition in Munich in 1937, the work of these three artists was highly charged, edgy, satirical and extremely political. Their paintings and drawings were passionate, often brightly coloured, sometimes beautiful, but frequently disturbing.
