

Ladies' Golf Captain's Blog – 21st September

I am writing this after a weekend away with my daughter Ellen, playing the iconic Royal Birkdale and Royal Liverpool. We had a great time but we agreed that we both love playing at Roehampton Club – 'there's no place like home'!

The Centenary Bowl played their semifinal away match at Kingswood on 16th September and won 4/1 which means that they are now in the Plate Final! They will meet either Chobham GC or Surbiton and the final will take place on Sunday October 15th.

Tessa Ringrose and Caroline Dewar have won their semifinal of the SLCGA Centenary Foursomes with a stomping 6/5 and are now in the final against a pair from Reigate Heath. The final will take place at Guildford GC on Sunday 22nd October.

Upcoming events

On Sunday there is a Club Roll Up both in the morning at 7.30am and the afternoon at 12.30pm. We meet in the Club Café.

Next week we are playing a Fun 4BBB competition open to everyone with the Fashion Show to follow. There are still openings on the tee sheet so do please sign up. If you have challenged in the Captain and Pro matches you can try to beat myself and Ricky' score.

Even if you are not playing in the competition, you are very welcome to come to the Fashion Show at 2pm on the day when the new winter collections will be showcased. Should be fun!

The week after there is course maintenance so we will not have a competition on Tuesday 3rd October.

10th October is the Ladies AGM, preceded by a fun competition. Please join us to welcome Caroline Dewar as our new Lady Captain. On Saturday 14th October the Captains Drive In will take place. Sign up will open 30th September. Please join this competition too and support Caroline!

Captain and Pro

Ricky and I were challenged by Katy Preston and Kasandra Spalding on 6th September. It turned out to be a very tough match. We all played well but the outcome of the match was not easy to predict. I hit a lovely tee shot on the 14th and was hoping for a birdie and a win on the hole. Katy had other intentions however, sinking a long putt from the fringe for birdie. Suddenly my putt was looking a lot harder. Luckily, I managed to birdie it as well for a half!

Then on the 16th I was so happy to finally par that hole, which was needed for my eclectic card. I was hoping that would be enough for a win or at least halve the hole, but this time it was Kasandra who had other plans. She parred it as well. With two shots on the hole hers was for a net eagle! In the end we halved the whole match on the 18th. Very enjoyable. Thank you so much Ricky, Katy and Kasandra for playing and supporting Age UK Wandsworth.

Summer Eclectic

Gillian Edmonds is our nett winner of this year's eclectic with a score of 46. Jane Peel is our gross winner with a 56. Both very impressive scores. Well done ladies!

Summer Knockouts

The summer knockout trophies were also handed out during the Autumn Meeting prizegiving.

Valerie Patten won the Summer Goblet, with Henrietta O'Shea as runner up.

Vivien Harris won the Salmon Cup with Val Patten as runner up.

Caroline Leslie won over Tony Durrant in the Mid-Week Mixed Knock Out.

Charlotta Lyckeus won the Silver Knockout with Angela Atkins as runner up.

Well done all!
