

PHOTO CLUB SHOOT

CROSSNESS PUMPING STATION

WITH NIGEL WILSON

Crossness, a former sewage pumping station, is a Grade I listed building built in 1859–1865. Join Nigel and the PhotoClub for exclusive access to capture ‘a masterpiece of engineering – a Victorian cathedral of ironwork’.

scan here
for the shoot
schedule and more information

Wednesday 4th December.

Shooting on location 11am – 3pm. Meet at Abbey Wood station at 10.30am.

Workshop includes pre-recorded Zoom meeting to explain camera techniques and the day's schedule, plus a Zoom meeting to share photography from the day, at a date to be confirmed.

£185 per PhotoClub member.
Suitable for DSLR, mirrorless or phone cameras.

Book now at Reception or give the team a call on 020 8480 4200

PHOTO CLUB

@RoehamptonClubMembers

EST. 1901